2Ls, 3Ls, and 4Ls: Summer Experience Survey

Just a reminder! A couple of weeks ago we attached our 1997 Summer Experience Survey forms to the back of the Record. If you didn't get a chance to fill out the forms, stop by our office this week to fill them out. Whether you volunteered for a public interest organization, clerked at a law firm, had a summer associateship, or researched for a professor, we want to know about it!

The first form is for our own office records. The second form, which asks about the pros and cons of the job, will be filed in the 1997 Summer Experience notebook for students to use to research potential employers. We do not require your name, but if you're willing to answer questions that students may have, feel free to write your name and e-mail address on the top.

And, as a special incentive, if you return both parts of the survey to the Career Services Office by Friday, September 12, 1997, you will receive, ABSOLUTELY FREE, a copy of the National Association for Law Placement's (NALP's) new book, An Insider's Guide to Interviewing: Insights from the Employer's Perspective. Inside the 32 pages you'll find inside advice from hiring attorneys across the country on such things as interviewers' favorite questions, responses that impress most and least, questions interviewees should ask, and much, much more!

Thank you for your cooperation!

SPECIAL NOTICES

PRO BONO OPPORTUNITY

Pro Bono Advocates is an organization dedicated to providing legal services to economically disadvantaged victims of domestic violence, through the efforts of staff and volunteer attorneys, assisted by law students and others. PBA also undertakes advocacy to improve and increase free legal services to battered women and the poor.

HERE'S WHERE YOU COME IN: PBA is looking for law students to participate in its work. You can conduct detailed interviews of prospective clients, help to determine their eligibility for a protective order under the pertinent statute, prepare the initial pleadings for an emergency order of protection, fill out other necessary judicial forms, and otherwise assist in helping these domestic violence victims get legal redress and move on with their lives. If you have a 7-11 license, you can represent clients in court, under the supervision of a licensed attorney. You also may be able to assist attorneys who are representing PBA clients in divorce proceedings. In short, you can help persons in need of help from the legal system while honing your own professional skills.

If you are interested in undertaking this pro bono activity, contact Prof. Joan Steinman (a member of PBA's Board of Directors) (e-mail: JSTEINMA) and give her a copy of your resume. She will forward your resume to Kim Silverman at PBA, who will follow-up with you. PBA will provide training. Thanks!

EcoTip: This new feature will provide fun, useful, insightful environmental information and ideas to live a greener lifestyle. Any ideas/suggestions for future EcoTips are welcome and appreciated. The following is an anecdote to start off the year with positive, motivational thinking :)

A large number of villagers brought wine to a gathering and poured it into a cask. When they were done, it was found that the cask contained nothing but water. They all must have thought, "If everyone else brings wine, no one will notice if I only contribute water."

No, this is not to say more people must bring wine to meetings (though I'm sure that would be greatly appreciated!) The moral of the story is that we all must contribute to the health of our environment, or we are all guilty for its demise.

FAMILY LAW SOCIETY

Bring your ideas! Please join us at our first membership meeting of the semester on either Tuesday, September 9, at 11:45am in room C35, or Wednesday, September 10, at 5:15pm in room 270. LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT LAW SOCIETY

Don't forget our first meeting is this Tuesday at 12:15 pm and again at 5:15 pm in room C25. This is your chance to meet other people that are interested in Labor and Employment Law. Besides getting to know one another, we will be discussing the duties of a Vice President and Secretary as well as the proposed by-law change. Please consider running for either Vice President or Secretary. The elections are open to all members regardless of year or division. The only office that has a restriction is the proposed evening division Vice President position, but the other Vice President position is open to all members. Nominations are due September 10 at 6:00 pm. You can self-nominate by e-mail to either Patty Potter (PPOTTER2) or Leslie Borre (LBORRE). Members will receive the list of candidates and voting instructions by e-mail. The candidates names and any position statements (which are not required) will be posted on the LELS board on the concourse level. The election results will be in next week's Record.

The Institute for Law and the Workplace will be presenting the 15th Annual Federal Sector Labor Relations and Labor Law Program on Thursday, September 18. This year's theme is "Reinventing Government: Taking Stock at the Midpoint of the Clinton Administration. Are We Working Better and Costing Less?" Scheduled speakers include Kevin L. Thrum, Deputy Secretary, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services; Joseph Swerdzewski, General Counsel, Federal Labor Relations Authority; Carol Bonosaro, President, Senior Executive Association; Robert Tobias, National President, National Treasury Employees Union; and Ben Erdreich, Chairman, U.S. Merit System Protection Board. The program begins at 8:45 am in the Auditorium. Students can attend free of charge. This is a great opportunity to see the interaction of politics, law, and labor issues. If you would like to volunteer to help, contact RVICARIO. Volunteers receive a complementary package of the conference materials.

WOMEN IN LAW

Thank you to all who were able to attend our first meeting. We appreciate your interest. Also, remember that if you could not make this month's meeting or were able to attend and have since thought of questions or ideas, you can always send an e-mail to WIL.

○ If you haven't already done so, please complete a membership survey. This form is a great way for you to let us know what you want to give as well as get from this organization. This year we are especially concerned with exploring and expanding the diversity of our group, so let us know what you think. Also, please remember to pay your dues. A $10.00 check made payable to Women in Law can be left in the WIL mailbox (245). Payment of dues allows you to participate in elections and receive discounts on WIL merchandise. Watch this space for upcoming WIL events!
